CONF019837

According to small-town gossip, upon receipt of an invitation to Mike's wedding, the daughter(s) of a former neighbor who now lives out-of-state came forward with accusations about sexual misconduct in the past when they were neighbors. Out of this came legal proceedings. I understand he was served with a warrant for his arrest upon return from his honeymoon. He will probably serve 4 yrs.

Mike was affiliated with Troop 70 in Waconia earning the rank of Eagle Scout while the Gowing Brothers were in charge. They are both now in prison for life for sexual misconduct. The Gowings pleaded guilty, and I understand Mike did, too. Most people in the community are unaware of the incident or that Mike is in prison--even though it is a small town. His parents are very socially prominent, and very active in the Masons, Eastern Star, Waconia Church.

Kiwanians join worldwide gathering

On Saturday, January 20, nine St. Johns Kiwanis members and friends were a part of a worldwide Kiwanis gathering to celebrate the 75th anniversary of Kiwanis. There were over 13,000 members from all over the world who met in Detroit to commemorate the special day.

The St. Johns Kiwanis Club meets every Thursday morning at 7:07 a.m., where the local group decides how best to carry out the goals and objectives of the organization.

The Theme for Kiwanians this year is "Encourage Excellence" and some of their ongoing projects are: The Student of the Month Program; sponsoring a student to the Hugh O'Brien Motivational Camp; and giving incentives to some elementary schools to encourage excellence.

The Kiwanis club regularly donates service and funds to youth serving and community non-profit organizations such as Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Jaws of Life, Eagle Village Youth Camp, and the Children's Miracle Telethon.
